Description

This is a censored cover and letter from Louis P Lochner (1939 Pulitzer Prize winner for Correspondence while covering the war in Europe). In 1941 Lochner was interred by the Nazi's and later exchanged for German prisoners. This letter was written by him not long after his release while in a hotel in San Francisco. It was written to a female friend in Mexico City, Mexico. I have many censored mail covers that were sent to Louis Lochner but this is the only one I have that he authored and sent. A nice artifact from a great author. NO RESERVE. E mail questions to eemiller.com or KSHANNON1@ec.rr.com. GOOD LUCK
