Dear Sir:

If your discourse at the quarter-millennial Anniversary of the Dutch Church in America has been printed in pamphlet or any other form I would like to get a copy of it.

Possibly it may have appeared in the weekly paper of the Society, but

My Dear Uncle

Mother has told you that we want to see you your cousin Mrs. for Billbrough at Leeds and stayed two days in the Queen's Hotel at the Railroad Station where we stopped years ago. Well the family were all glad to see us, your cousin Joseph had gone to Harrogate for the day but called on the day following Sunday with his son, the eldest I believe whom we have never seen before, an intelligent young man who does not resemble in face any of the others. Mrs. Billbrough has grown old and decrepit from rheumatism, poor
