CHARLESTON HOTEL
CHARLESTON, S. C.

Jan. 5, 1905.

Brig. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss,
Gen. Staff, War College Dept.,
22 Jackson Pl.,
Washington, D. C.

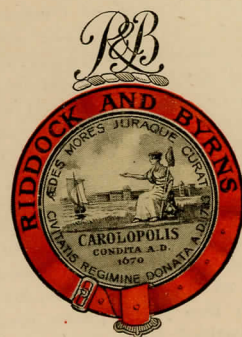

Dear Sir:-

We take pleasure in announcing to you that THE CHARLESTON HOTEL HAS REOPENED, under a new management, having been thoroughly renovated, remodeled and newly furnished throughout, and this City can now boast of a strictly up-to-date hotel. Suites with parlor and bath can be had in any portion of the house; there is a long-distance telephone in every room, and the Table is unsurpassed. It will always give us pleasure to have you stop at THE CHARLESTON whenever you come to our City, and we will be pleased to make you special rates on application.

We are enclosing you a souvenir, which we trust will convince you that all we claim for our Hotel is true, and as we are advertising THE CHARLESTON as "ARMY & NAVY HEADQUARTERS", we hope you will patronize us if you ever come this way.

Thanking you to acknowledge receipt of the enclosed, and with our best wishes to you for a very happy New Year, we are,

Yours truly,
