January 18 18 47

in Camp neer Saltillo mexico deare friend I imbrace this opperturnity of writeing to you for the purpose of informing you that I am well at present / hoping those lines may find you and all my friends ingoying the same blessing this divishion of the american army in the comand of General Wool arived in this great and important pass december 25 and have expected the approch of the enamy dayly ever Sence that date General Wool receved information by one of his spies this morning that A divishion of the mexican any consisting of 8 thousand troops was in camp on the East side of the mountain half way betwen this place and monterey tho the devils cant atact us in this pass with success major general Butler the hero of monterey is in town with 3 thousand troops 5 miles from heare he was in our camp this morning for the purpose of selecting a place for breast Works when the mexicans defeats him and General wool to gether tha will have but two more to defeat and those are the devil tom walker we have had sum verry hard marching after we croosed the rioagrande and have at times been in want of sumthing to sustain life tho we cant complain at present the attention Boys are all well William A Watson died in saltillo december 28 and his death was lamented by all the company there is one thing due to his memory and that is he was a gentleman in every sence of the word and a soldier I would like verry much to see you and have a comersation with you concerning many things I close my Compliments to all those to whom tha may

Concern

tell my parrents that i am verry well and hope that tha are injoying the beessing gave my respects to Mr Welsh and family your father and family mrs Neal mr Warnock and co i hope the cause of temperance is a flurishing in alton it reported in camp that the administration party in the [illegible] united States is sunk indeed lade infamy by means of the anexation of texas and the present war with metico and if that is the truth i doo not wish to be a citizen of any such a federal bush whacing baddy of corruption i doo hope my friend those deraineing political cowards have not succeeded in influenceing your young mind to in joining them in thare black hearted corruption nothing more at present remanes your true friend i want you to show this letter to my parents R M Wagner to Mr J K Balache

January 18 1847 in Camp neer Saltillo mexico deare friend I imbrace this opportunity of writeing to you for the purpose of informing you that I am well at present hoping those lines may find you and all my friends injoying the same blessing this divishion of the american army in the comand of General Wool arrived in this great and important pass december 25 and have expected the approch of the enamy dayly ever sence that date General Wool receved information by one of his spies this morning that A divishion of the mexican army consisting of 8 thousand troops was in camp on the east side of the mountain half way between this place and monterey tho the devils cant atact us in this pass with sucksess magor General Butler the hero of monterey is in town with 3 thousand troops 5 milds from heare he was in our camp this morning for the purpose of selecting a place for breastworks when the mexicans defeats him and General Wool to gether tha will have But two more to defeat and those are the devil tom Walker We have had sum verry hard marching after we crosed the riogrande and have at times buin in want of sumthing to sustain life tho we cant complain at present the alton boys are all well William N. Watson died in saltillo december 28 and his death was lamented by all the company thare is one thing due to his memory and that is he was a gentleman in evry sence of the word and a soldier I would like verry much to see you and have a conversation with you concerning many things give my complements to all those to whom tha may concern tell my parrents that I am verry well and hope that tha are injoying the blessing....I hope the cause of temperance is a flurishing in alton it reported in camp that the administration party in the united states is sunk under a lode infamy by means of the annexation of texas and the present war with mexico and if that is the truth I doo not wish to be a citizen of any such a federal bush whacing boddy of corruption I doo hope my friend those de ineing political cowards have not succeeded in influenceing your young mind in joining them in thare black hearted corruption nothing more at present remanes your true friend I want you to show this letter to my parents

R.M. Wagner to Mr. J N Balache

Cover Mr. John N. Balaiche Alton Ill with PT ISABEL FEB 1, 1847 cancel, 10

Balle Buena Vista