Buena Vista.

At a very large meeting of the citizens of Lexington and the County of Fayette, (held pursuant to a call made a few days since,) on Monday the 12th April 1847, on motion of M. C. Johnson Esq. Judge James E. Davis was chosen Chairman and Wm. R. Bradford appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been briefly explained by M. C. Johnson Esq. the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to draft and report to this meeting, Resolutions suitable for the action of the Citizens of this City and County, viz: John C. Breckinridge, M. C. Johnson, R. A. Buckner, R. Wickliffe, Jr. Edward Oldham, Waller Bullock, Geo. R. Trotter, James O. Harrison, Robt. N. Wickliffe, E. A. Dudley, J. L. Hickman and Geo. B. Kinkead.

Thomas L. Crittenden Esq. of Frankfort, who acted as volunteer aid to Gen. Taylor in the battle of Buena Vista, having been invited by a number of our Citizens to visit Lexington and address the meeting on this occasion, and it being announced that Mr. Crittenden was in the City, Messrs G. P. Jouett, R. A. Buckner and T. S. Redd were appointed a Committee to wait upon and request the attendance of Mr. C. Shortly afterwards the Committee returned and conducted Mr. C. into the meeting, when he was introduced to the audience by the Chairman, amid thunders of applause.

The Committee charged with the preparation of suitable resolutions made their report, prefaced by a few brief but eloquent remarks by John C. Breckinridge Esq. and it was adopted without dissent, as follows:

Buena Vista.

The gallant deeds of our brave Sons, who shed their blood on the glorious battle-field of Buena Vista, have added additional lustre to the Kentucky character for courage and patriotism, and it is just and proper that their dead bodies should not remain in a foreign country and on an enemy's soil, but that they should be removed to their native land and rest under the protection of their Kindred and friends.

1st Resolved, therefore, That while the Citizens of Lexington and Fayette County rejoice with those who survived that memorable conflict of arms, and congratulate them on its great result, they mourn and sympathise with the friends and families of those who fell in battle, and will take immediate measures to remove their bodies for interment in Kentucky.

2d Resolved, That Richd Spurr, John Norton, J. R. Dunlap, B. F. Graves, J. S. Redd, Chris. C. Rogers, Edwd Oldham, F. McLean, Neal McCann, James A. Grinstead, Jno. Neat, W. P. Browning, Henry C. Payne, Jno. L. Elbert, Owen D. Winn, Jas. L. Berryman, E. W. Hunt, Jno. H. Wallace, Jno. Hull, Jno. Lund, Wm. Sullivan and Wm. Bryan be appointed a Committee to collect funds to defray the expenses attending the execution of these resolutions.

3d Resolved, That Capt. Geo. P. Jewett and Nelson Dudley Esq. be requested and appointed to proceed to the battle-ground of Buena Vista in Mexico, and bring home the bodies of Col. William R. McKee, Lt. Col. Henry Clay, Adjutant Edward M. Vaughn, and Messrs. A. G. Morgan, Wm. W. Bayles, Clement Jones, Nath. Ramey, Henry Darty, Wm. Thwaits, and Thomas Weigert, all of whom belonged to the Volunteer Companies from this County, to be interred in the public Cemetery at the Seat of Government, where the State will erect a suitable monument to their memories.

4th Resolved, That while the County of Fayette feels itself called upon by a sense of duty to the slain Soldiers, to take this early action, yet we deem it proper to say to our Sister Counties, that we shall be the first to sustain and ratify whatever may be done by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, towards a general restoration of the remains of all the Citizen Soldiers of the State, and their honorable interment in the State Burying Ground at the Capitol with a suitable monument, to perpetuate forever the memory of their Gallantry and their worth.

5th Resolved, That whilst we are called upon to perform these last sad acts of gratitude and friendship to our departed warriors, we should be false to the patriotic emotions with which this Nation has been so thrillingly electrified, did we not tender to the indomitable hero, Gen. Zachary Taylor, and the brave officers and Soldiers whom he Commanded on this memorable occasion, the unqualified homage of our grateful hearts.

6th Resolved, That copies of these Resolutions be sent to Major Gen. Taylor and to the Colonels of the two Kentucky Regiments engaged in the battle of Buena Vista; and that they be presented to the Fayette Circuit and County Courts and the City Council of Lexington, with a request that they be entered at large upon their records, and that they be published.

Mr. Crittenden was then loudly called for, and in response addressed the meeting for upwards of an hour, in a most interesting review of the battle of Buena Vista. His details of the severe fighting on that memorable field of blood were exceedingly interesting, and kept a vast audience rapt in close attention during the whole time he occupied the stand. Nothing could be more modest, appropriate and handsome, than Mr. C's account of the battle.

When he concluded, Mr. M. C. Johnson moved that the thanks of the meeting be presented to Mr. C. for his very able and interesting address, which was adopted by acclamation.

The meeting then adjourned.

Attest:

Wm. R. Bradford, Sec'y

James E. Davis. Chm'n.

Answered

June. 10.

Buena Vista

At a very large meeting of the citizens of Lexington and the County of Fayette (held pursuant to a call made a few days since) on Monday the 12th April 1847 on motion of M.C. Johnson Esq, Judge James E. Davis was chosen Chairman and Wm. R. Bradford appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been briefly explained by M.C. Johnson Esq. the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft and report to this meeting, resolutions suitable for the action of the citizens of this city and county, viz. John C. Breckinridge, M.C. Johnson, R. A. Buckner, R. Wickliffe, St. Edward Oldham, Waller Bullock, Geo. R. Trotter, James O. Harrison, Robt. N. Wickliffe, E.A. Dudley, J.L. Hickman and Geo. B. Kinkead.

Thomas L. Crittenden Esq of Frankfort, who acted as volunteer aid to Gen. Taylor in the battle of Buena Vista, having been invited by a number of our citizens to visit Lexington and address the meeting on this occasion, and it being announced that Mr. Crittenden was in the city, Messrs G.P. Jouett, R.A. Buckner and T.S. Redd were appointed a committee to wait upon and request the atttendance of Mr. C. Shortly afterwards the committee returned and conducted Mr. C. into the meeting when he was introduced to the audience by the Chairman amid thunders of applause.

The Committee charged with the preparation of suitable resolutions made their report prefaced by a few brief but eloquent remarks by John C. Breckinridge Esq. and it was adopted without dissent as follows:

Buena Vista

The gallant deeds of our brave sons, who shed their blood on the glorious battle field of Buena Vista, have added additional lustre to the Kentucky character for courage and patriotism, and it is just and proper that their dead bodies shold not remain in a foreign country and on an enemy's soil, but that they should be removed to their native land and rest under the protection of their kindred and friends.

1st Resolved, therefore, That while the citizens of Lexington and Fayette County rejoice with those who survived that memorable conflict of arms, and congratulate them on its great result, they mourn and sympathize with the friends and families of those who fell in battle, and will take immediate measures to remove their bodies for interment in Kentucky.

2d Resolved, that Richd. Spurr, John Norton, J.R. Dunlop, B.F. Graves, T.S. Redd, Chrisn C. Rogers, Edwd Oldham, F.McLear, Neal McCann, James A. Guistead, Jno Neal, W. P. Browning, E.W. Hunt, Jno. H. Wallace, Jno Hull, Jno. Curd, wm Sullivan and W. Bryan be appointed a committee to collect funds to defray the expenses attending the execution of these resolutions.

3d Resolved, that Capt. Geo. P. Jouett and Nelson Dudley, Esq be requested and appointed to proceed to the battle grounds of Buena Vista in Mexico, and bring home the bodies of Col. William R. McKee, Lt. Col. Henry Clay, Adjutant Edward M. Vaughn, and Messr A.G. Morgan, Wm W. Bayles, Clement Jones, Nathl. Ramey, Henry Carty, Wm. Thwaits and Thomas Weigert, all of whom belonged to the colunteer companies from this country, to be interred in the public cemetary at the seat of Government where the state will erect a suitable monument to their memories.

4th Resolved, That while the County of Fayette feels itself called upon by a sense of duty to the slain soldiers to take this early action yet we deem it proper to say to our sister counties, that we shall be the first to sustain and ratify whatever may be done by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth towards a general restoration of the remains of all the citizen soldiers of the state, and their honorable interment in the state Burying Ground at the Capitol with a suitable monument to perpetuate forever the memory of their gallantry, and their worth.

5th Resolved, that whilst we are called upon to perform these last sad acts of gratitude and friendship to our departed warriors, we shold be false to the patriotic emotions with which this Nation has been so thrillingly electrified, did we not tender to the indomitable here, Gen. Zachary Taylor, and the brave officers and soldiers whom he commanded on this memorable occasion, the unqualified homage of our grateful hearts.

6th Resolved, that copies of these Resolutions be sent to Major Genl Taylor and to the colonels of the two Kentucky Regiments engaged in the battle of Buena Vista, and that they be presented to the Fayette Circuit and County Courts and the City Council of Lexington, with a request that they be entgered at large upon their records, and that they be published.

Mr. Crittenden was then loundly called for, and in reponse addressed the meeting for upwards of an hour, in a most interesting review of the battle of buena vista. His details of the severe fighting in that memorable field of blood were exceedingly interesting, and kept a vast audience wrapt in close attention during the whole time he occupied the stand. Nothing could be more modest, appropriate and handsome than Mr. C's account of the battle.

When he concluded Mr. M.C. Johnson moved that the thanks of the meeting be presented to Mr. C. for his very able and interesting address, which was adopted by acclamation.

The meeting then adjourned.

Attest:

Wm. R. Bradford, Secy

James E. Davis, Chmn.