E. PLURIBUS UNUM.

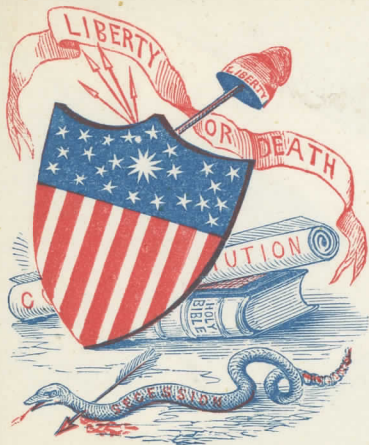

"The star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

"Or any other man." "That's what's the matter."

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust,"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

"Whom the gods would destroy they make foolish at first,"
Is a saying in Latin we oft have rehears'd ;
But alas ! poor Virginia, its dogma denies—
For the gods, to destroy her, did first make her Wise !

Behold the man ! He said that Cotton
Would surely make them independent !
But see, my friend, "the string he's got on,"
A fit adornment to the end on't.

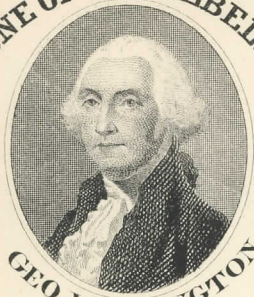

All we want is to be let alone.
